

PLEASE keep the Morse code requirement for amateur radio licensing. Keeping the technical skills high is also important or we will end up with a glorified CB service. That has already happened to 2 meters due to the no-code technician license.